Description

A refined set of three ceiling mounted pendant lights, each featuring an elegant cut glass shade of acorn form suspended from finely crafted silvered mounts. The glass shades are beautifully faceted in a flat diamond-cut pattern, designed to catch and refract light with exquisite brilliance, while the mounts display pierced neoclassical motifs and a polished finish that complements the clarity of the glass.

Combining timeless craftsmanship with understated grandeur, these fixtures evoke the elegance of Edwardian and early Art Deco interiors, making them equally suitable for traditional or contemporary settings.
