

FILEMAN ANTIQUES

FINE ANTIQUE LIGHTING & GLASS

A RARE DOCUMENTARY STIPPLE-ENGRAVED GOBLET
ENGRAVED BY FRANS GREENWOOD, SIGNED & DATED 1742

Sold

REF: FA1061

Height: 25.5 cm (10")

Diameter: 11 cm (4.3")

Description

The round funnel bowl stipple-engraved with a half-length portrait of a female herring saleswoman holding up in her left hand a half-full roemer, and with her right hand a herring by its tail. Sat in an arched window frame with fruiting vines flanking the sides, drapery in the background to the right and a table-cover draped over the sill. The reverse signed and dated in diamond-point F. Greenwood fecit 1742. The stem with an inverted baluster section above a knop, above a replacement lower section and foot, two scratches over the frame to the right of the roemer.